

Fresno Interdenominational Refugee Ministries

Refugees leave their home countries fleeing religious or political persecution, often coming to the United States with the few belongings they can carry. Most arrive with few resources and speaking little or no English.

Do not forget to show hospitality to strangers, for by so doing some people have shown hospitality to angels without knowing it.

Hebrews 13:2

Fresno Interdenominational Refugee Ministries seeks to show the love of Christ to refugees and work with them to build a better life and communities of hope. FIRM serves the needs of over 6500 refugees in the Fresno area of the California San Joaquin Valley, primarily refugees of Southeast Asian, Slavic, and African origin. FIRM's programs include:

- Employment Programs
